"The liberal and pre-professional education offered at MacMurray seeks to develop the whole man; his powers of precise observation, logical thought, and clear expression, and his sensitivity to his fellow man, his esthetic awareness, and his social and spiritual concerns." 1

"The college experience should foster the development of students as inquiring humane persons, should guide students to gain a sense of purpose beyond their personal lives, and should enable them to enjoy significant futures. We believe these goals are consistent with MacMurray's aim to produce graduates who can and will make significant contributions to life, not only in social concerns, but also in personal relationships." 2

Will we be able, in the years hence, to see that our college experience has accomplished the afore-mentioned goals? Or will we venture that such sights are unattained, or even unattainable? Let us search behind the above ideal, to the real, and examine the practical application of such a philosophy ---.

MR. JOHN J. WITTICH

To the Seniors:

We at MacMurray College spend much time thinking and discussing the central purpose of the college: to prepare our graduates for a lifetime of intellectual thought, rational behavior, and service to others. -- But only the foundations are formal when you complete your college years.

The enduring hope of those of us who remain on the campus - and of the large number of alumni and friends over the world is that the members of the class of 1974 have used their campus experiences to develop high standards and skills of thought and behavior. This hope, and our affectionate pride in you, is bolstered by our knowledge of you as persons. May God's blessings attend you all.

Cold stone obituary!
History is frozen here. Self hood, neurosis, domination, anonymity, relevance: How many of us were ever as real as these dark stones?

Like characters etched upon the pages of a fairy tale we act out our silly parts, secure in a make-believe setting. Through our tiny windows we watch the world devour itself.

BLACKSTOCK HOUSE

Blackstock House for the first time houses only women. In this spirited place, one should be prepared to be doused with water at any time; if it's not water it could be a hall soccer puck or an accidental kick due to the "Gene Kelly's" dancing and wailing "Bette Midler" style up on third floor. Once a zoo, always a zoo, and the third floor has kept the party image up with '50s costumes and group singing and of course that something extra that makes a party jump! The rest of the dorm is not to be ignored, as each floor has its own personality. Ruled by Bob and Betsy Albright, Blackstock house is certainly a castle-ful of lovely spirited ladies.

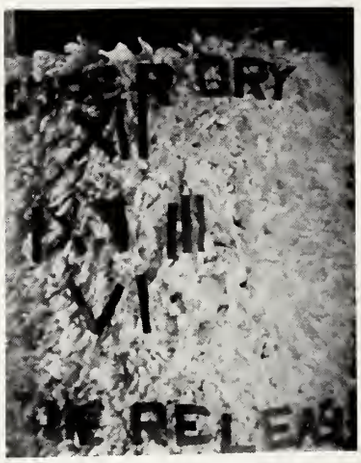
Coors

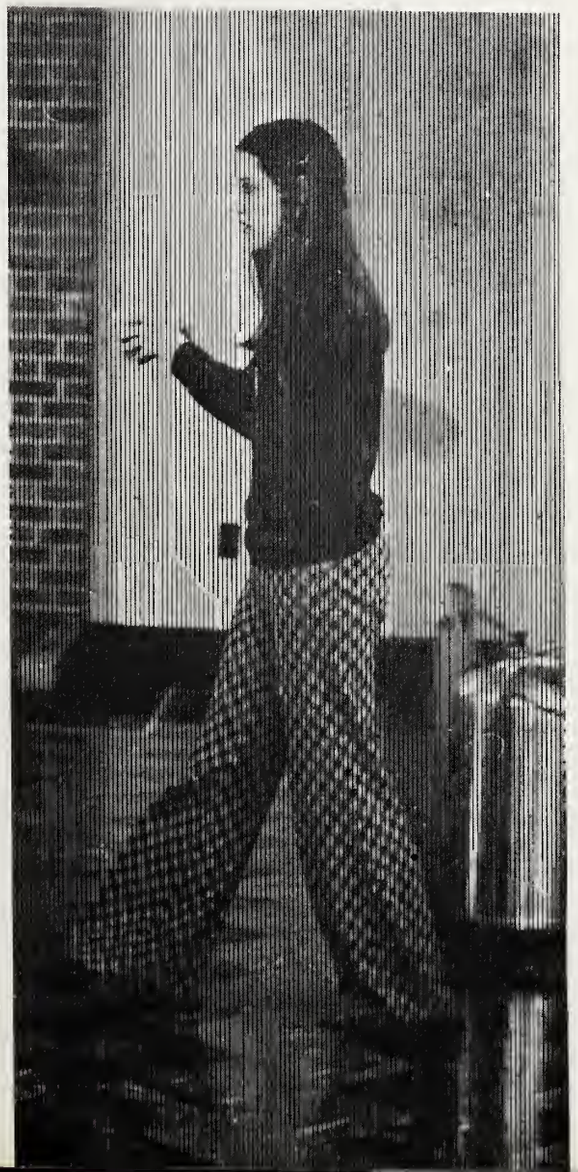
JANE HALL

Jane Hall, an experimental example of the new trend in college housing, permits male and female occupation of suites in the same wing on the same floor. Hours of course, are difficult to maintain; no one admits to being any worse for it. Spontaneous floor parties maintain the family spirit in the dorms; residents have adopted one another in adapting to each other. If Jane Hall-coed, must go down in history --it should be considered a successful innovation, long over-due. Al Tagomori, head resident of Jane Hall, has had no major complaints as to the handling of the dorm.

KATHRYN HALL

Katy, housing all women residents, is perhaps one of the more reclusive dorms on campus. However, by chance one might discover that those hours of secrecy, are not spent in solitary; the girls are gregarious and giddy, preferring pizza and puzzle parties, tap-dancing and all night talk fests to somber lives of study and slumber. Are the girls keeping head resident Sally Conway awake?





KENDALL HOUSE

Kendall House had a rough time of it this first year of coed-housing. Each floor pretty much remained autonomous but dorm spirit was at an all time low first semester. Remember the "Emmigrants"; the third floor lassies swapped rooms and rumors about as many different ways as one can play solitaire. Invasions in the showers by some misguided first floor men caused some excitement, but the teasing back about the mock wedding evened up the score a little. Life lightened second semester though. Some of the fears and prejudices were overcome. Hostilities were nearly forgotten as the ice began to thaw. Could head resident, Carl Jardine have had something to do with it?

MAC MURRAY COLLEGE
TUB
ATHLETIC DEPT.

MICHALSON HOUSE

Michalson House is another dorm on campus where once you are in, you never want to leave. It's famous for its privacy, yet is also one of the most hospitable dorms on campus. Housing two floors of men and two of women, it boasts that delicate balance called unity. House father David House enjoys the people until the infamous dorm parties kick off at Christmas time. Lounge dances, fires glowing on crossword puzzles or bridge games, or a pianist trying to get notes out of our piano are almost nightly or monthly occurrences in the main lounge.

THE MOST CREATIVE

PICTURES

NORRIS HOUSE

What is there to be said about Norris House, the only remaining all mens dorm on campus? They definitely do not want the fairer sex invadnig their quarters -unless specifically invited of course. Traditionally referred to as the "Norris Animals", the nickname is now giving way to "the home of the soccer jocks and study jocks". This helps explain the numerous injuries plaguing the dorm, although the Good Doctor's medicines still work best when found in the weekend punch bowl. Playing games is what the Norris residents like best whether it's with a Risk board, a deck of cards, or a ball. Bruce Scheid is the head resident of Norris House this year.

RUTHLEDGE HALL

Ann Rutledge, the only dorm on campus which has always housed coeds, is often regarded as the traditional ladies' residence. It used to be the elitest dorm on campus, and must still retain that aura to some extent as during last year's lottery, it was one of the first dorms to be filled up with its quota of upperclassmen. Those that get into the dorm rarely, if ever, try and move elsewhere on campus. Rutledge is also the only dorm on campus to retain any signified class rooms and faculty offices, as the English department also calls Ann home. Rutledge Hall is watched over by Ms. Constance Booth, another well known campus personality. She's always willing to do anything for her girls, and wouldn't want to rule over any other nest but hers.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

This student organization coordinates activities of intellectual, esthetic, and social value. Second semester activities included 14 films, four dances, a night at the races, campus bingo, and a "Y" overnighter. All programs are suggested by the student body and implemented by one of the eight SAC committees.

MacMURRAY STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The student association is pledged to the honor system and is charged by its charter by the board of trustees of the college to use its power for the best interests of the students. Gil Opferman, this year's president, says that "being a member of MSA means to work, to lead, and to provide for other students... It's a hard job and often times our efforts are intangible and frustrated. But it feels good, every once in a while to get something done." The purpose of M.S.A. as recorded in its constitution is also its objective in actuality: to create within the student body a sense of unity and responsibility and to formulate and execute policies which concern student life and activities.

CHARYBDIS

MACMURRAY COLLEGE — JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS — VOLUME 81, NO. 1

CHARYBDIS RECEIVES FACE-LIFT

Under the direction of Dr. Berman, responsible journalism once again predominated CHARYBDIS. The new format in the biweekly paper sparked a keener interest among students; editorials were well-researched before presentation to the student body and administration for rebuttal; more photographs illustrated the once satirical slander sheet. CHARYBDIS once again functions as a forum for information and discussion for the entire college community.

Editors Kathy Parker Reid and Dave Taylor have been seen finalizing copy late Wednesday nights, as articles were edited amidst a cloud of puns, swearing, and cigarette smoke. Most of the student body is unaware of the time involved in publishing biweekly, so next time you find a neatly-collated issue in your mailbox, offer the editors a pillow.

Dr. I.D. Berman, Kathy Reid, and Dave Taylor.

KATHY AND DAVE EDIT THIS YEARS PAPER

'CHARYBDIS' Workshop Held

During January, a workshop was held to better acquaint the staff with journalism techniques. The featured speaker was Ms. R. Betty Krieghauser, managing editor of the Pittsfield, Illinois PIKE PRESS. Enthusiastic staff members, faculty, administrators, and a trustee made the workshop possible.

CHARYBDIS

Charybdis, the student newspaper of MacMurray College, is published bimonthly by the students of MacMurray for the entire College Community. The opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of the College.

MONTAGE 1974

MONTAGE is a selected collection of original art, music, poetry, and prose, composed and submitted for publication by various members of the campus community. In discussing the responsibilities of the staff in reading the wide variety and unique styles of expression, Editor Janet Grosboll quotes Eisenstein, "In selecting the montage material which is to be fused into this or that particular image which is to be made manifest, we must study ourselves."

"This marks the seventh consecutive year of publication of the Mac Journal. The purpose of this journal continues to be the printing and dissemination of original research performed by Mac students in the fields of natural and social sciences. May the academic vigor found in the Spring 1974 issue be sustained."----paraphrased from the preface

CIRCLE K CLUB

The 34 members of Circle K lived up to their theme, "A Challenge to Action" in 1973 -74. Seven members trekked thirteen miles in the United Fund "Walkathon". Among other activities, Mac's local chapter of the national service organiztion, hosted a Halloween party for deaf children, sponsored a booth at the Capital Fund Raiser for the Education Complex, and participated in the annual Blood Drive.

SCEC

The Student Council for Exceptional Children serves to promote the education of exceptional children and to develop professional attitudes and awareness of persons preparing for the field of special education. In light of these objectives, members participate in scheduled events sponsored in the Four River Area. People prominent in the field address and meet with the council once a month discussing methods and innovative theories with members.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

There are numerous educational and social agencies serving the Jacksonville community (agencies which need and appreciate help). This year, in cooperation with 19 local agencies, fifty Mac volunteers served as Scout Leaders, Big Brothers, teacher aides, life guards, blood donors, etc. Volunteer Services avails opportunities for students to give of themselves, while learning about themselves and the community.

Happy SIEC Raffle winner, Jim Steele.

SIEA

SIEA is an organization promoting the development of future educators while benefitting the community with its services. Seen here are photographs of members participating in a raffle and flea market, sponsored to raise funds for the new Educational Complex.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

Open to all students, International Club serves to promote better understanding of political science and international relations. Most of the members are political science majors, though many are conscientious students who desire to learn more about foreign affairs. The club serves to initiate and to further interests concerning international cultures, problems, and affairs.

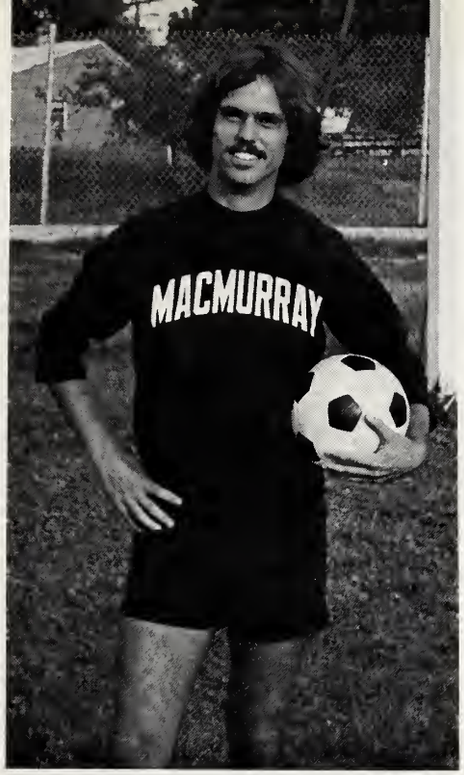
BOBBY HALL OF ST. LOUIS, MO: MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OF THE YEAR



Bobby Hall, captain from Creve Couer, Missouri, played two years of soccer in high school before coming to Mac. Dubbed "Booby", the 5'10" captain initiated and soloed in the Malayan Peninsula All Stars and the "Goose Neck Point Boys Road Choir" while on the way to Colorado. Easily recognized by his quick smile, erudite wit, and neat pack captain's dunce cap, Bobby sums up his philosophy of life and soccer with "if its not fun, it don't mean a_____!" (explicative) No wonder #12 was elected M. V. P.

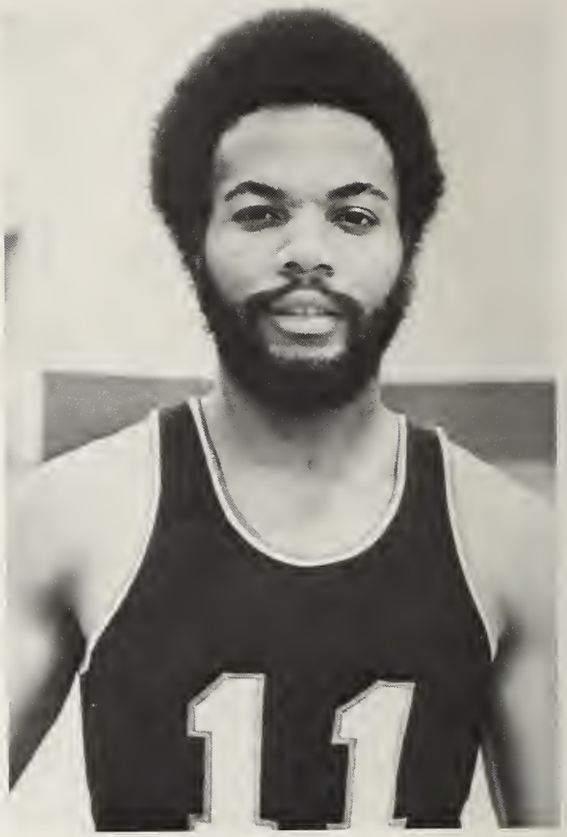
JIM HAWKINS OF BRANDYWINE, MD



MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior captain James Hawkins, 5'8" sociology major from Brandywine, Maryland, closed out his 93 game varsity career as the number 5 scorer in Mac history. The high-flying "Hawk" scored 366 points this season to give him 1096.

Hawkins net 155 of 318 shot attempts for a 48.7 percentage and 56 of 84 free throws for a .667 average. He also led the squad in rebounds with 120, was selected to the All-Midland's Atheletic Conference team, the Rose-Hulman (Indiana) All-Tourney team (for the third time) and is a candidate for the COSIDA Academic All-American for the College division.

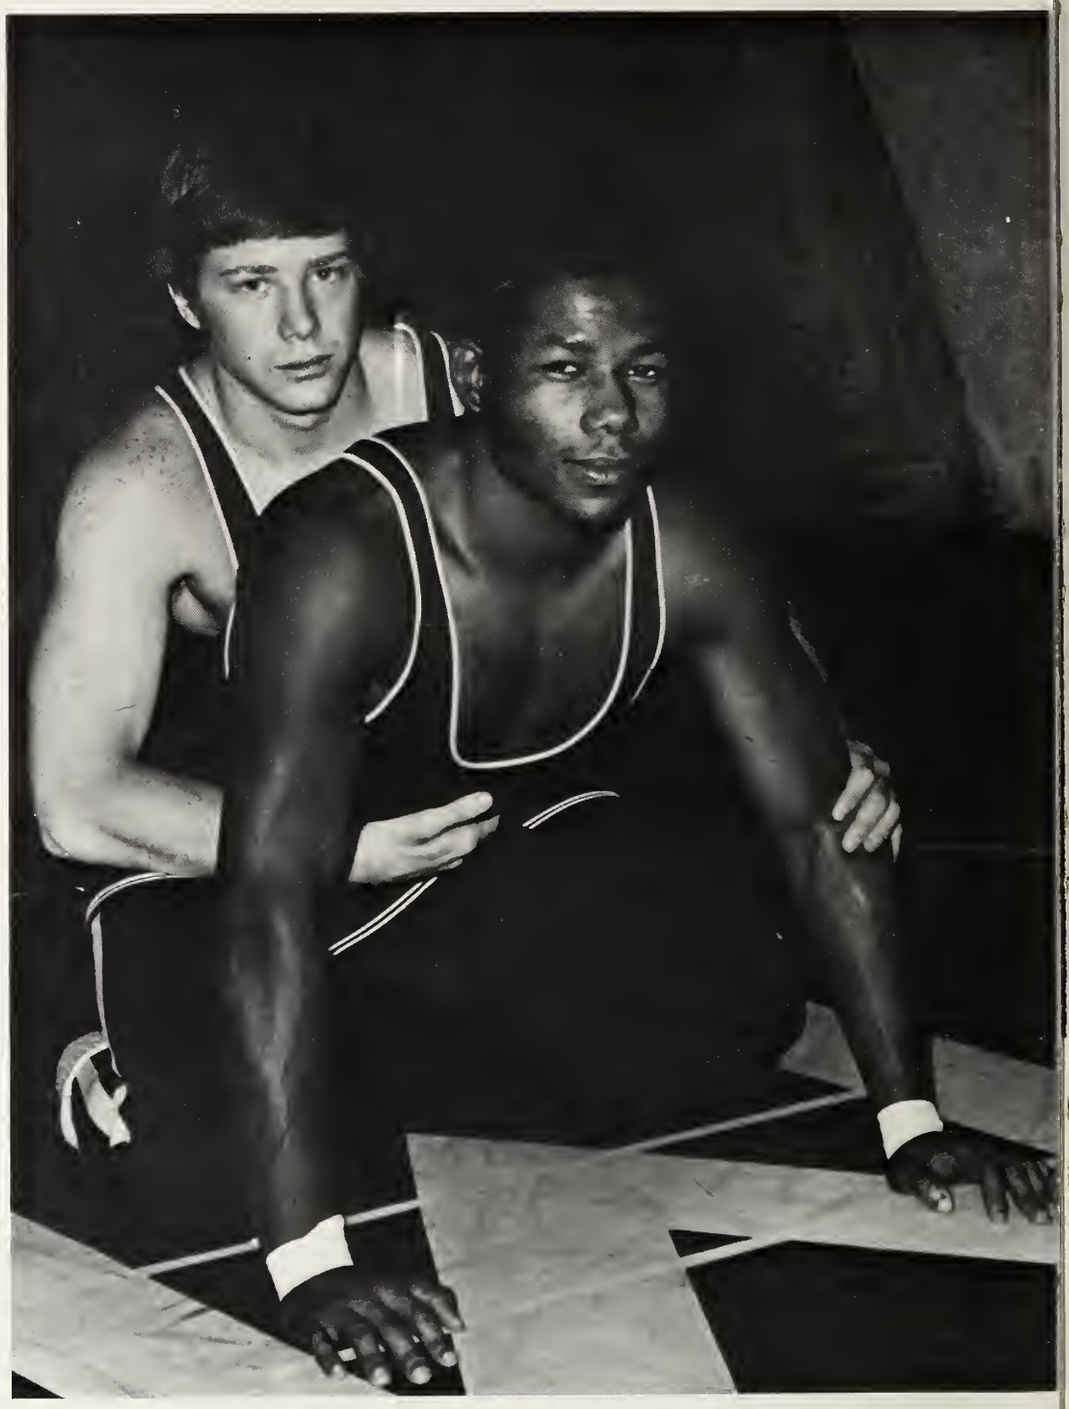
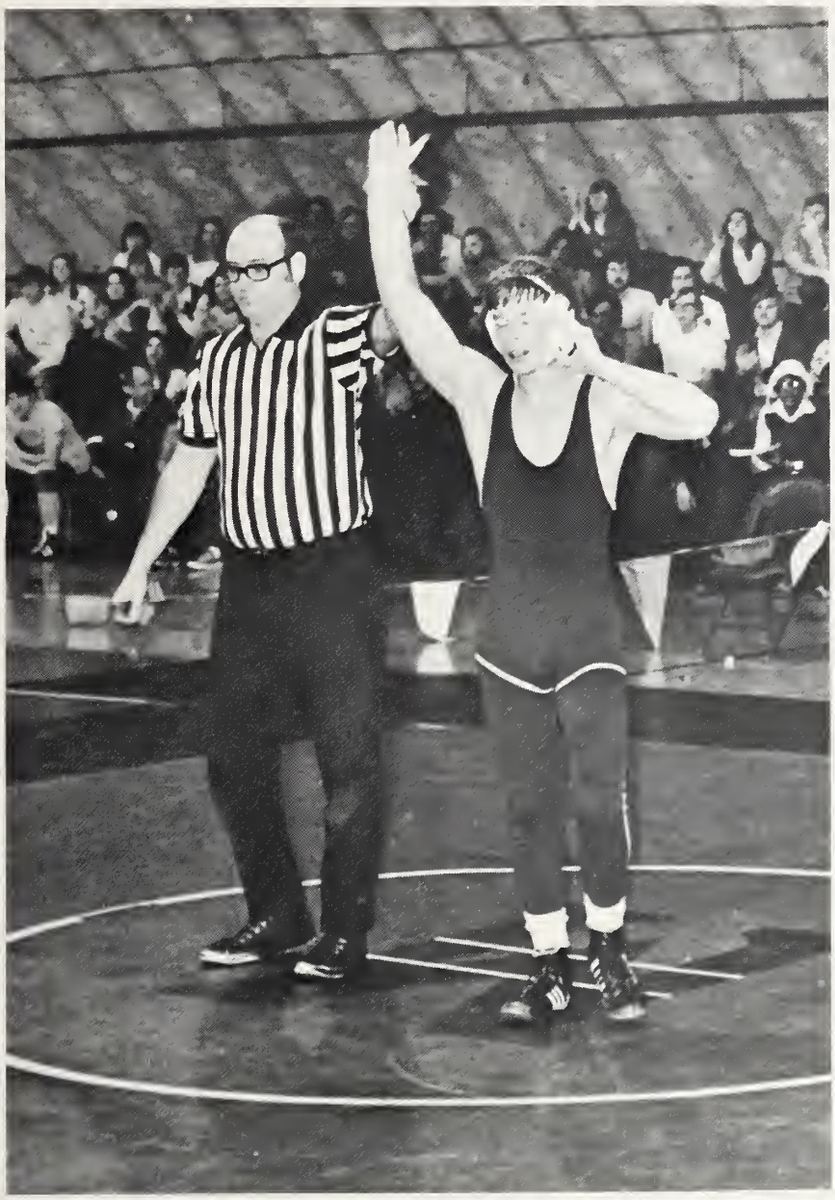
Ken Glueck, co-captain, M. V. P. of the year in wrestling hails from Palatine, Illinois. Nicknamed, "Glook" by his peers, the 142 pounder had a 33-5 won/loss record for the season. He was elected the most outstanding wrestler at the Mac, Wheaton, and North Cenral Invitationals during his fine career, which added to his high standing in the "Mac Hall of Fame". This mat man earned 135 points toward the year-end point total for the college by himself. Hopefully, he will be able to carry out his future plans and coach wrestling so as not to put his talent to waste.



KEN GLUECK OF PALATONE, IL
MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OF THE YEAR



George Murray, 1974 co-captain was voted the "Most Courageous Player" this year because of his determination to overcome a severe knee injury and continue to improve his wrestling skills at the same time. He must have pulled it off as his won/loss record for the season this year was 27-5, he was voted Athlete of the Month in January, and continued to wrestle himself into 3rd place at the Lake Forest Invitational and Most Valuable Player at the MacMurray Invitational. Next year our 158 pounder will be doing graduate work at Sangamon State University in Springfield to further his sociologcal undergraduate studies, while at the same time work for the I. B. I. He came from Carol Stream, Illinois where he wrestled all through high school. Guess practice does make perfect-or as close as one can get.

Senior Rick "The Rocket" Pretz (St. Louis, Hazelwood) voted the Highlander M. V. P. this year, led the team in hitting with a fine 344 batting average. Pretz was the tobbacco-chewing Highlander catcher who directed the clan's defense for four years and will be sorely missed. The 5'8" right hander should also be recognized for his sardonic sense of humor as the "most walked player." Rick the Rocket holds the Mac career record for BB's (58).

MacMurray's baseball Highlanders finished a disappointing season by winning three of its last four encounters. After taking two from St. Louis University (4-1, 6-2) they cropped their finale to tournament bound Western Illinois University (18-1).

The season marked the end of sterling careers for five senior starters---Rick Pretz, Curt Grote, Dain Meyers, Jeff Kinneman, and Ron Streiker. With the loss of these five starters, Coach Bob Gay's 1975 team will need to rely on more inexperienced players. Come on Mac, let's root for the home team.

DR. C. LEPLIE KANATZER

Dr. C. Leslie Kanatzer retires June 30 as Dean of the College after 28 years of service. A native of Illinois, Dr. Kanatzer earned the bachelor's degree, with honors, at Eastern Illinois University. Master's and Doctoral Degrees were rereceived at the University of Illinois with a major in protozoology and minors in bacteriology and cryptogamic botany.

The student body recognizes this man for his contributions far beyond the field of science. In his commencement speech, the Dean stated that the primary function of the liberal arts college is to unsettle settled minds; Dr. Kanatzer always meets this challenge unequivocally. His sensitive wit and unselfish compassion shall ever be engraved in the minds of those who know him. The campus community honors the man, who has been able to maintain his optimism in the hindsight of seven decades, who respects each man for his individuality, and who communicates with every syllable spoken. Not a god but a man, capable of fatigue though not defeat, Dean Kanatzer's aspirations could well be our own.

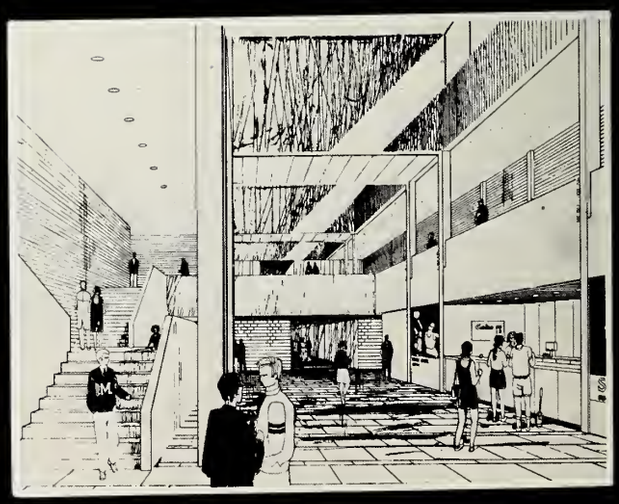
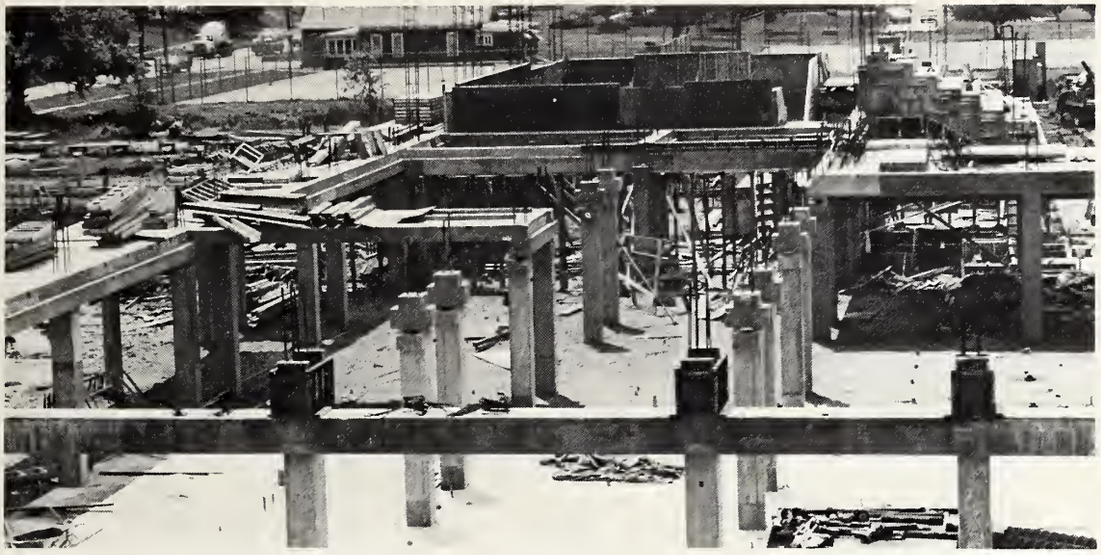
WE'RE BUILDING A $3,000,000 EDUCATION COMPLEX

Trustees, administration, faculty, staff, students, alumni, other friends, business, industry, foundations, federal loans--all are potential sources of support for the $3,000,000 goal.





STUDENT PARTICIPATION REACHES 25%

The new Education Complex has been designed to serve multiple purposes. In addition to housing the Division of Education, including Special Education and Physical Education, other faculty offices and facilities will be located there. Classrooms, lounges, locker rooms, an olympic-size pool, a motor learning laboratory, a gymnasium/convocation area, dance studio, wrestling and weight-lifting rooms, and a curriculum laboratory are among the facilities to be housed in the new complex. The building will serve the total campus community and Jacksonville area in many ways. The gymnasium/convocation area has a seating capacity of 3,546, the largest in the entire Jacksonville community.

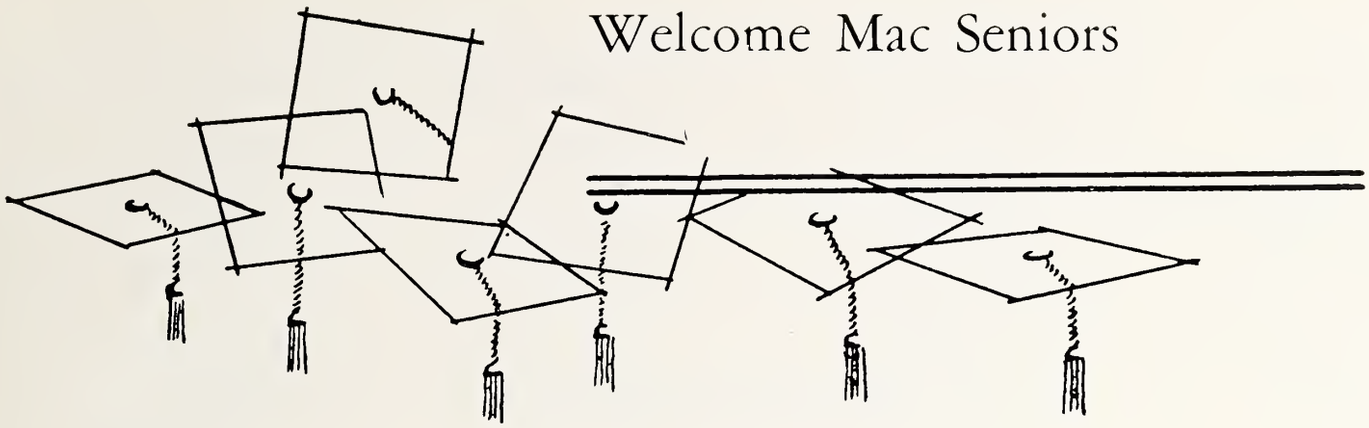
Welcome Mac Seniors



As a Mac Senior you will soon be joining the ranks of our alumni. We offer our congratulations and an invitation to take an active interest in our alumni association.

Our purpose is to aid the advancement of our alma mater and to maintain college friendships through continuing interest and services. We elect alumni to represent us on the Board of Trustees of MacMurray College. We help to assure a strong institution in the years ahead by participating in the Alumni Fund.

Welcome to our live organizations actively serving MacMurray College and more than 9,000 alumni living in 50 states and 30 foreign countries.

The 1974 TARTAN is a pictoral editorial contrasting the "ideal Mac student" with the majority, the backstage candids with the final poses. In working on the yearbook, we have found both. Our thanks to Tony Licata, Bob Klingele, and Public Relations who helped in a pinch in living up to our concept of the ideal. To those whose pledges never "quite" materialized due to "other more important priorities", this annual does not belong to you. For all you on campus who BEST know how to run a yearbook and are so willing to criticize its production with your not-so-unique suggestions, why were YOU not on the staff?

It's been an exasperating struggle but OUR yearbook is complete. It is only through the concern of a few that the 1974 TARTAN is presented to you, the student body. It's been an experience we shall never forget.

Our Last Hurrah goes to Dave Zak for accepting the editorship for next year. GOOD LUCK!

Jane Radunzel
